

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is prime example of corporations using a public forum to foster corporate interests at no cost to them. That is outrageous and an affront to democracy! At the very least, pro-Kerry supporters should have equal time. To me, it appears as if Bush and Big Business are once again bedfellows. What is our country coming to?